Bromley Heath Infant School

20 July 2009

Dear Parents

The School Profile

The Governors have updated the School Profile for this year. You can access our school profile at: <http://schoolprofile.parentscentre.gov.uk>

Mosaic snails

The mosaic snails that have now taken up their position in the playground will be named and officially unveiled next week on Wednesday 22 July at 1.15 pm. The very colourful and unusual snails were commissioned by the governors in memory of Jason Offer who had a long connection with Bromley Heath Infant school as a parent, governor and chair of governors. Jason's wife and three children have been invited to join us.

Thank you

Thanks to The Friends of School who have put a great deal of time and effort in organising a wide range of events during this school year. The Summer Fair was a great success and well supported by Bromley Heath families.

The staff and I would like to convey our thanks to all parents for their continuing support of the school and their child's learning.

Yours sincerely

Chris Chrystal
