

Mrs Perry-Hodge's weekly update

We are well and truly immersed in the Christmas spirit now at BHI!

Yesterday, we were very proud of our year twos who performed their production of 'A King is Born' to the residents of Avonmere Care Home, having been invited by a former pupil of BHI who now works there. The residents loved the performance and enjoyed talking to some of the children afterwards.

This morning was our EYFS production of 'Snuggle Up Stable' to families and I am sure that the audience would agree that it was joyous. It takes a lot of energy and courage to practise and perform a production but the children have all been great 'Keep Going' and 'Try New Things Bears'. We were all very impressed by their amazing performances (including a duet by Primrose and Charlie). Their confidence was brilliant, whether singing, dancing, or acting - and the audience loved all the extra elements, costumes and props. Well done to every EYFS child - you have had a fantastic first term and what a way to (nearly) end it! Thank you also to the EYFS team, who have worked tirelessly rehearsing, preparing costumes and supporting the children to be the best they can be, not just today, but throughout their first term.
